

June 2017 eNews Update

Visit our Website

Forthcoming consultation on Discrimination paper

MCRB is working on a new Briefing Paper – “Discrimination and Business in Myanmar”, intended to provide guidance to businesses and others on how to prevent and address discrimination in the workplace. A consultation will be held on 9 June 2017, in Yangon.

MCRB and Fauna and Flora International co-hosted a week of Tanintharyi Tourism workshops

MCRB and FFI held a week of multistakeholder workshops on sustainable tourism in Tanintharyi. These workshops follow on from the December 2016 discussion in Dawei, and the work which FFI and MCRB have been undertaking to support the Myanmar Government and the business-led Tanintharyi Tourism Development Committee. Presentations are available on the website.

Read more

Briefing Paper on 'Children's Rights and Business'

MCRB has launched a Briefing Paper on 'Children's Rights and Business in Myanmar'. The paper focusses on the role of business in respecting and supporting children's rights, using the framework of the ten 'Children's Rights and Business Principles' (CRBP), developed by UNICEF, the UN Global Compact and Save the Children, contextualised for Myanmar.

Read more

Forthcoming Disability workshop

MCRB and International Labour Organisation (ILO) are planning a multistakeholder workshop on how to promote a dialogue between Persons with Disabilities (PWD) and business on implementing the 2015 law.

Second multistakeholder workshop on sustainable tourism in Ngapali

MCRB, Hanns Seidel Foundation \(HSF\) and Myanmar Responsible Tourism Institute \(MRTI\), co-hosted a second multistakeholder workshop on sustainable tourism in Ngapali from 8-9 May 2017. Presentations are available on the website.

Read more

Burmese Version of the IFC Performance Standards

MCRB has worked with the International Finance Corporation (IFC) to ensure a high quality  Burmese translation of the IFC's Performance Standards on Environmental and Social Sustainability, including ensuring that the Burmese vocabulary, is consistent and aligned with emerging Myanmar legal frameworks.

Read more

© 2017 Myanmar Centre for Responsible Business
info@myanmar-responsiblebusiness.org

