

MCRB eNewsletter - August 2018

Visit our Website

PWINT THIT SA PROJECT
Transparency in Myanmar Enterprises

Start early for next year's Pwint Thit Sa/Transparency in Myanmar Enterprises report!

On 10 September 2018, MCRB and Yever will hold a meeting for large Myanmar companies who were benchmarked in Pwint Thit Sa 2018 to discuss the outcome of last year's report, and prepare for Pwint Thit Sa 2019. Please contact Phyu Phyu Zin for more details.

Save the Date: Responsible labour practices workshop, 13 September

MCRB, in co-operation with the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and interested companies, will hold a workshop on responsible labour practices on 13 September as part of the responsible business workshop and seminar series.

Enter for the Myanmar Responsible Tourism Awards 2018

The application window for this year's Myanmar Responsible Tourism Awards (MRTA) opened on 10 August, deadline 21 September. Myanmar Responsible Tourism Institute (MRTI) is organising the awards to honour tourism industry leaders and innovators of all types and sizes, in six categories including: accommodation, operator, community involvement, business innovation; awareness raising and empowerment. Further details are available here. MCRB is a partner for the MRTA 2018; further partnership opportunities are available.

Contact MRTA

MCRB submits its 2nd UN Global Compact Communication on Engagement (CoE)

MCRB has submitted its biannual Communication on Engagement (CoE) to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) covering the period July 2016-June 2018. Nonprofits are expected to report every two years, unlike companies which should report annually.

Read more

Recent developments in combatting corruption in Myanmar

Our website summarises some recent developments in combatting corruption in Myanmar, including the aspects of the 4th Amendment to the Anti-Corruption Law which relate to business.

Read more

Responsible Business Basics at the Mon State Parliament

Aung Kyaw Soe and Hlaing Min Oo presented on responsible business at a Workshop in Mawlamyine organized by National Enlightenment Institute (NEI). Around 90 participants attended, including members of the Hluttaw (Parliament), government officials, businesspeople, and civil society organisations from Mon State.

Read more

© 2018 Myanmar Centre for Responsible Business
info@myanmar-responsiblebusiness.org

