

CityMart leads the 2019 Pwint Thit Sa Report

The 2019 Pwint Thit Sa/Transparency in Myanmar Enterprises (TiME) report was published on 30 April, and shows out of 248 large Myanmar enterprises, private companies are leading on corporate disclosure. CityMart topped the charts, followed by FMI, Max and Shwetaung. The report was once again completed in partnership with pro bono partner Yever.

Read more

Fly the Rainbow Flag for workplace equality!

We've already had over 20 Myanmar and foreign companies and organisations contacting MCRB and Colors Rainbow to join the movement to fly the rainbow flag – physically or virtually on your social media - for LGBT equality on 17 May on the International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia and Biphobia (IDAHOT).

Coming Soon: Myanmar Migrant Labour Workshop

MCRB, in partnership with its parent organisation, UK Institute for Human Rights and Business (IHRB) and the Leadership Group for Responsible Recruitments, is organising a workshop (15 May) on Myanmar migrants working in neighbouring countries. This workshop is a unique opportunity for sharing perspectives, discussing challenges and reviewing options for improving practices particularly through the Myanmar – Thailand corridor.

Vicky on air quality, corporate governance, and why business can be a force for reform

MCRB's Director, Vicky Bowman, was interviewed for the April-June issue of 'Euromatters' the quarterly publication of the EU Chamber of Commerce in Myanmar, about the business drivers for corporate governance and transparency, and her concerns about the visible and invisible deterioration of Myanmar's environment.

Euromatters April-June issue

© 2019 Myanmar Centre for Responsible Business
info@myanmar-responsiblebusiness.org

